

Claire Botto

I moved to Alderholt four years ago with my husband and three children from Bedfordshire. My eldest started in Year 2 and is now at Cranborne Middle School, my middle child is currently in year one at St James' and my youngest attends the family room in Sunbeams one day a week.

My career before we moved to Alderholt was in Event Production Management - organising conferences, exhibitions and video production. I currently work as Parish Administrator for St. James' Church in Alderholt and am editor of the Parish Magazine so I have strong links within the community.

I was chair of the Friends of St James' until this year when I stepped down to spend more time with my youngest before he starts preschool next year so I have a close working relationship with the teachers and the children at St James'
I am looking forward to working with the rest of the governors this year.
